

USO World Headquarters introduces the “Liberty Belles”

The Liberty Belles

A nostalgic 1940's troupe reminiscent of the “Andrew Sisters.”

These 3 ladies will take you on a sentimental journey, crooning classic hits such as “Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy,” “Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree,” “I'll Be Seeing You,” “God Bless America,” and “Thanks for the Memory.”

This show includes period costumes and hairstyles, dance numbers, and audience interaction. They are sure to bring back memories of a by gone era and maybe even a tear or two.

The “Liberty Belles” are available to sing the National Anthem complete with lush harmonies and their shows include a rousing patriotic section that is sure to be the highlight of your event!

Recent performances include:

- ☆ Dedication of the WWII Memorial, Washington, DC
- ☆ 60th Anniversary of D-Day, National D-Day Memorial
- ☆ Re-opening of the Statue of Liberty, New York City
- ☆ “Liberty Moves” – relocation of the Liberty Bell, Philadelphia, PA
- ☆ USO at BWI for troops deploying to Iraq
- ☆ Veterans Canteen Service Convention, St. Louis, MO
- ☆ Army Birthday Ball, Long Beach, CA

Contact Karen N. Preston, USO Corporate Marketing, for information and to book a performance.
Phone 252-354-5880, e-mail: kpreston@uso.org